

Ignatian Day of Prayer

God, Who Is Turning The World Around

Days of prayer invite you to pray, reflect, and share with others how God is living and active in your life. Retreat directors will offer presentations and give suggestions for prayer based on the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola. Plenty of time is allowed for individual silent prayer and reflection. We will celebrate the Eucharist.

“Conversio” = to turn around. Conversion in our lives today; what does it mean? We will explore what it means in our lives through prayer and exercises. You will be invited to pray, reflect, and share with others how God is living and active in your life. We will celebrate the Eucharist.
